FIRST EVER
BLOCK
CHALLENGE

Thanks for accepting Ruby Street Quiltworks "first ever" Block Challenge.

Featuring Fabrics from Elizabeth's Studio's "Face the Music" Collection

We love this collection! It's edgy, with a Mardi Gras Flair and a Bourbon Street rhythm, the perfect collection to inspire our "first ever" block challenge.

Here's how it works: Pick up a Challenge Packet (free at Ruby Street Quiltworks) by the end of business (6:00 pm) on Mardi Gras, February 16, 2010.

Supplies are limited to the stock on hand so make sure to pick up your packet early. Make a 15 inch (finished size*) quilt block using the entire piece of fabric included in the packet. You may complete the block using any fabric of your choice. Turn in the block to Ruby Street Quiltworks by the end of business

(3:00 pm - it's a Sunday) on February 28, 2010.

Only one Challenge Packet will be given to each participant. Participants may enter as many blocks as they like, however, each block must contain one entire 5 x 7 inch image from the panel of the "Face the Music" fabric collection by Elizabeth Studios. These additional 5 x 7 inch images must be supplied by the participant.

The Choice awards (Jan's Choice and Staff's Choice) will be awarded to the blocks we feel demonstrate the best craftsmanship and creativity. Everyone who submits a block will be entered for a chance to win the $50 Gift Card Drawing.

All prizes will be awarded by March 15, 2010.

All entered blocks become the property of Ruby Street Quiltworks.

All who enter shall do so in a spirit of fun and experimentation.

*The block must be entered unfinished and include a 1/4 inch seam allowance on each side. The unfinished block should measure 15 1/2 inches.

Prizes:

Jan's Choice - $50 Gift Card

Staff's Choice - $50 Gift Card

Drawing - $50 Gift Card
